Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2022-001676

Dear Michael D Hnath (Dillon, McCandless, King, Coulter, and Graham LLP):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on August 2, 2022, in which you seek the "Certification of Representative issued" in Du-Co Ceramics Company, "Case No. 06-RC-6261 on October 3, 1972." You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $37.00.

We acknowledged your request on August 2, 2022.

An initial search was conducted in the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, which generally maintains NLRB case records from 2011 to present. This search did not locate any responsive records for the 1972 case.

Please note that under the Agency's record retention and disposition policy, records are retained for a six-year period, which commences at the close of the calendar year during which the case is closed. The records are then destroyed, unless they are selected for permanent retention based on their legal significance. Notwithstanding the referenced 1972 date of the requested case, a further search was made of the list of permanently retained cases maintained by the Agency's Case Records Unit for cases that closed between 1982 and 2010, and it was confirmed that the case was not selected for permanent retention.

Nevertheless, as the final part of our search for potential records, a search inquiry was directed to the Region 6 Pittsburgh office to conduct a manual search for any responsive paper records that might still be maintained by the Region. Staff in the Region searched their paper certification records and located the requested Certification of Representative, which actually issued on October 12, 1972, and is attached. The responsive record is of poor quality and somewhat difficult to read due to bleed-through text. As noted, it is an old paper record and is the only copy in the Agency's possession.

After a review, I have determined that two redactions were necessary under Exemptions 6 and 7(C) of the FOIA to protect the privacy interests of an individual named in the record. Specifically, the applied redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which pertains to information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which pertains to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C).

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category A, commercial use requester. This category refers to requests “from or on behalf of a person who seeks information for a use or purpose that furthers the commercial, trade, or profit interests of the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made, which can include furthering those interests through litigation.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(v). Consistent with this fee category, you “will be assessed charges to recover the full direct costs of searching for, reviewing for release, and duplicating the records sought.” 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(A). Charges are $9.25 per quarter-hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Thirty minutes of professional time was expended in searching for and reviewing for release the requested material. Accordingly, please remit $18.50.
